Polonia dominated for long periods, created enough chances to bag 10 goals, then watched struggling Northcote miss two penalties in the last 15 minutes. Big Alex Marshall went down the left in the 30th minute and crossed to the back post where the incoming Brendan Lakic tucked the ball away first-time with a five-metre shot. George Bozikis brought down Lakic inside the area in the 53rd minute and Janusz Przybyla's well-taken penalty made it 2-0. Then Przybyla, showing some of the lethal shooting power he displayed earlier this season, let fly with a scorching 20-metre shot which flashed low into the corner of the goal, giving young Spiro Kardamitsis little chance. Now the penalty drama unfolded. Con Fakos took the first one and hit the post. A few minutes later Rick Liplarski handled inside the Polonia area. Northcote's classy midfielder Dave Nixon strode up to the spot only to have tall keeper Leszek Dziela-kowski sawe the attempt. Phil O'Connor and Arno Bertogna of longong loom as strong challengers to the favorite, Peter Katholos of Sydney Olympic, in the voting for the 1982 Australian Player of the Year award.

the voting for the 1982 Australian Player of the Year award.

The annual awards night, hosted by the Australian Soccer Press Association (ASPA) and Philips Industries, will be held in Sydney next Tuesday.

Votes for the best player awards are cast by members of the ASPA in all PSL cittles.

For each game, there is a consensus vote of 3-2-1. Katholos, the brilliant Olympic midfielder, has been hot favorite for most of the year due to his strong showing in "Soccer Action's" best player award voting.

But O'Connor and Bertogna also have polled strongly, and O'Connor is sure to have picked up many votes in the second half of the season, during which he has scored most of his goals. The former St George and APIA striker has finished third in the voting in each of the past two seasons.

Other leading contenders for the award include Zoran Ilioski (Footscray J.U.S.T.), Jim Hermiston (Brisbane City), Robble Dunn (West Adelaide), Gary Byrne (Canberra). David Lowe (Newcastle), John Bradley (APIA), Nell Banfield (Adelaide City) Dew Marton (St George) and See Watson (Sydney City), David Mitchell (Sydney City), Steve Blair (South Melbourne Hellas), Howard Tredinnick (Newcastle) Dave Skeen (St George) and Robble Slater (St George). Eddie Thomson is in the running for his second successive Coach of the Year title, as he again has guided Sydney City Hakoah to the PSL championship.

Frank Arok also has achieved remarkable success, rebuilding the St George team and gaining second place in the club's first year back.

It's difficult to predict the winner of the Referees' award, because referees remain mainly in their own cities, unlike previous years when their weekly travels made them familiar in all States.
The leading contenders would appear to be Don Campbell (SA), Chris Bambridge (Vic), Peter Rampley (NSW) and Tim Davies (NSW).

In Australia. Clubs still can sign overseas players after the deadline.

That's the result of a landmark VSF Appeals Board decision concerning a successful protest by Second Division title contender Melbourne over the eligibility of goalkeeper Dennis Boland, at the time on loan to South Melbourne Mordfallor.

For years the VSF interpreted the deadline section in its constitution as applying only to players transferring from clubs under the VSF umbrella. Transfer forms had to be bought at Soccer House and lodged before June 30.PSL, interstate and overseas players were a different kettle of fish. The deadline didn't apply to them. They needed clearances from the clubs they were leaving. No transfer forms had to be lodged.

South Melbourne Mordialloc has been struggling all season to avoid relegation. It approached Footscray J.U.S.T. and negotiated a loan arrangement for Boland. J.U.S.T. received $2,000 from the Second Division club with a further $500 due at the end of September. South Melbourne Mordialloc bought a transfer form from Soccer House on June 6 without realising that it wasn't needed. Had the club merely gained a clearance for Boland from the PSL and lodged it at Soccer House before the deadline Boland would have been its player. The transfer form and PSL clearance for Boland were lodged at Soccer House on July 3.

South Melbourne Mordialloc and the VSF thought everything was in order. Both thought the deadline didn't apply to Boland, a PSL player Joining a VSF club. They thought that he was in the same category as an interstate or overseas player.

Boland played a vital role in South Melbourne Moridialoc's 1-0 league win against Melbourne which protested within the stipulated 72 hour limit after the match and claimed that Boland was an ineligible player. Melbourne lost its case. The VSF tribunal upheld the constitutional interpretation of its federation.

Melbourne appealed within the stipulated 21-day limit. It won the appeal, was given both points and the board ruled that Boland was a J.U.S.T. player.

NOTE IMPORTANTLY, the Appeals Board Filled unit the VSF wrongly interpreted this area of its constitution. South Melbourne Mordialloc was shown to have acted in ignorance and was absolved of any allegations of deceit. The board also ruled that all other appearances by Boland for South Melbourne Mordialloc were not grounds for protests. Melbourne was the only club which protested within the 7th bour limit.

The June 30 transfer deadline doesn't stop VSF clubs from importing players at a later date.

It has been a costly experience for South Melbourne Mordialloc which still has to talk to JU.S.T. about the $500 it owes in September as part of the loan agreement for Boland.

J.U.S.T. probably will offer to play an end-of-season friendly at Schnitzler Reserve against South Melbourne Mordialloc and give all gate takings to the Second Division outfit.

Following Croatia's crushing win over Rockdale (7-0) in round 13 this year one would have been excused for feeling that the match between the two sides at Croatia's home ground was going to be yet another walkover.

Inter Monaro lost at home to Polonia, giving Rockdale some hope which may materialise by it defeating Canterbury in its last outing in two weeks time. Inter Monaro, facing Melita Eagles at home in its last match certainly will have its work cut out.

And what about the Premiership now?

Croatia, certain to run away with it some weeks ago is now in trouble. Following its 1-1 draw with Rockdale, Croatia has taken a one point lead or with the control of the control of Manly Warringah, the side which for so many weeks led the race for the premiership, suffered a 2-1 loss at Cromer Park at the hands of Sutherland and that should effectively put a stop to Manly's chal-

That statement, by St George striker - Ted Macdougall is a disturbing one. Macdougall's opinion has weight behind it, bearing in midd his many years in English soccer, playing in most of the divisions.

I find the statement disturbing for several reasons. Where aggression and physical force dominate, skill obviously will suffer. There also is a tendency to accentuate the demand for aggression as a compensation for lack of skill. This then can produce (excuse the pun, a vicious circle, with players and teams being asked to play even more aggressively to counterbalance their skill deficiency.

In the truly manly art of competing for the ball, players are probably less aggressive today than they were years

It is the use of elbows to the head, cynical kicking and tackling over the ball and so on which are producing much of the "aggro" in today's soccer.

A similar point of view certainly could be made about Rugby League and I am sure the same accusing finger can be pointed at Aussie Rules in Melbourne. Referees often seem to find it difficult to distinguish between deliberate violent play and accidental fouls.

Consequently you find forthright, honest players being booked for missed tackles while cynical "hackers" often escape punishment. The yellow card system often causes players to be sent offer causes players to be sent offer the causes players to be sent offer causes where truly violent kicking, punching and elbowing do not produce the same fate.

Nevertheless referees do not produce the same fate.

Nevertheless referees do not produce violent play, except where they are too lenient especially early in a game, as some say Peter Rampley was in the aforementioned Marconi Slickers game and others also claimed referee Tim Davies was in the violent Saints-Slickers game.

Generally however, it has to be said that it is players who are violent and referees who are violent and referees who are violent and referees who are list of the player which is rated as the hardest and most aggressive in the world, then there have to be reasons for this. I mentioned previously the lack of skill which feeds on itself, with coaches asking for more competitiveness to compensate.

I do not believe that we should passively allow ourselves to be caught up in such violen-ce, where skill can never flourish.

Channel 0/28 will send a film crew to Frankston Pines' home ground tomorrow (Thursday) to cover the big under-15 national championship clash between Victoria and NSW.

Victoria, under coach Tony Dunkerley, won the under-14 title in Mt Isa last year and the young Vics are geared up to try and clinch their second successive championship.
The big game kicks-off at 1.15 pm and is sure to attract one of the biggest crowds ever at a junior game in Victoria.

Dynamic young Victorian midfielder Con Kiakos could play a big part in the outcome of what could be a vital clash for the championship prospects of these two states.

Kiakos, 15, already is an accomplished player at senior level. He made his senior debut for South Oakleigh in Provisional League and has chalked up many first team appearances this season with the champion elect of Metropolitan League Fourth Division.

Perhaps his most vital appearance occurred just two weeks ago. South Oakleigh was down 3-0 to promotion rival Sandringham City with just 25 minutes left. Kiakos came on as a substitute and immediately was a revelation in midfield. He had a hand in one South Oakleigh goal, scored another and played scored another and played a major role in South Oak-leigh's amazing comeback to level at 3-3.

Justyn Parks from Bell Park is our Buf-falo Sports Junior Clubman of Week.

Justyn captains the under-11 side and is in his fifth year with Bell Park.

He is a gifted player and has scored 108 goals for the club. His determination more than compensates for his lack of inches and has gained Justyn the respect of team mates and opponents alike.

One of Justyn's ambitions is to surpass the total of 500 goals scored by his father for Bell Park and local club Syrena and Justyn is well on the way to beating that mark.

Justyn's prize as Junior Clubman of the Week is a mag-nificent Buffalo Sports bag.

J.U.S.T.'s HURDLE

By LAURIE SCHWAB

Preston Makedonia, unbeaten in the past six weeks, makes its final bid for a place in the top four when it meets Footscray J.U.S.T. at Connor Reserve on Sunday.

But so to does Wollongong, which takes on Brisbane City at the Wollongong Showgrounds.

Both teams will find it hard to win, as Brisbane City and J.U.S.T. will be toghting tooth and nail for a point, as J.U.S.T. still can be relegated if it loses while Canberra and Adelaide City win.

Brisbane City already has been relegated and will have to apply its pride and will want to show the league its true ability by beating Wollongong.

Makedonia and Wollongong both will be strengthened by the return of key players. George Todorvski will be back in Makedonia's defence and Roy Cotton will rejoin Phil O'Connor in Wollongong's attack. Both have been out due to suspension.

J.U.S.T. is likely to have two players back — Kyri Kyria-kouleas and Jim Milne who also have been out suspended. Makedonia's young defender Con Opasinas, who marked Charlie Egan so efficiently against Hellas, is almost certain to line up against Zdravko Lujic on Sunday — and if Lujic is blotted out, J.U.S.T. may find itself without a forward line!

Vlado Pijevalicic was tried as a striker against Heidelberg last week, while Mendo Ristovski was relegated to the bench. It remains to be seen which combination coach Peter Jaksa comes up with this time.

But Jaksa is confident that J.U.S.T. will save itself — so confident that he already is making big plans for next season, including a national membership drive among the Yugoslav community of Australia.

Adelaide City Juventus must beat Heidelberg at home to climb out of the relegation zone but Juventus does not appear to have a forward line capable of breaking down Heidelberg's awesome defence, led by in-form Charlie Yankos, and with Neil Banfield out suspended. City may be unable to control Gary Cole, Jamie Paton and Jim Campbell.

Heidelberg's aim a few weeks ago was to finish in second place and gain the double chance in the finals play-offs. It's still possible, but Heidelberg would have to win at least 50 while St George would have to lose at least 0-5 to Sydney Olympic at Pratten Park. Canberra also faces a crucial final round. South Melbourne Hellas, now out of the race for the top four, probably will attract most of Heidelberg's supporters to its match against APIA Leichhardt at Middle Park.

following great work by Joe Senkalski.

That was only two minutes into the second half and a great movement involving a quickly-taken throw-in by midfielder Jim Hamilton and some brilliant footwork by Lowe presented Drysdale with another opportunity, and the netting bulged again when Newcastle raced to a 4-1 lead. From the outset both sides threw away their defensive shackles and this pattern of play suited the fine ball skills of Newcastle's Jim Hamilton and Joe Senkalski, both noted for their eagerness to join attacking thrusts.

"We have been relegated today on a goal which was typical of the whole season" . . . that was the comment of Brisbane City coach Nereo Saftch after his side had conceded an injury-time equaliser to St. George—a goal which sealed relegation.

It was a goal which com-pletely silenced the Spencer Park stadium — lew could be-lieve it really had happened. City had gone ahead only hree minutes from time when Joe Cairney intercepted a back-pass and rounded St George keeper Mike Fraser to give his side a 2-1 lead and a slim chance of PSL survival.

But while everyone watched the clock into injury time ironically it was former City striker Paul Wilkinson who headed a ball into the City goalmouth for Rob Slater to run in unchallenged and slot it into the net for the draw.

Jim Hermiston looked at Tony Pezzano, Pezzano glared back . . . Nereo Saftich slump-ed on the bench.

Saftich blamed Pezzano for not coming off his line to take the ball while the young keep-er, on laon from Sydney City, said Hermiston appeared to shape up to head the ball, then ducked at the last minute.

The goal was recorded as having been scored in the 90th second of injury time, added for treatment to City defender Steve Perry. Forty seconds later the final whistle went and City walked off Spencer Park relegated.

At this stage the club intends to seek re-admission and with its magnificent facil-ities it would be a shock not to see it in the national com-petition again next year. But much work has to be done.

much work has to be done.

The club must seriously think about a team rebuilding policy and not frantically reach for the cheque book in an attempt to buy survival. There have been some good buys in the past — Dave Ratcliffe, who this year went to St. George, his replacement Frank Liddell, and Jimmy Dunne but there have also been some amazing blunders.

Surprisingly after a dis-astrous year in which he failed to win the support of Saftich or the City fans, it was Calrney who gave City a glimmer of hope.

He put City on equal footing with St. George at halftime by finishing off a throw-in move involving Barry Kelso and John McVeigh.

McVeigh had thrown McVeigh had thrown to Kelso a number of times and the big man had flicked the ball back well but on-one had followed in to finish off the move. After seeing 5t: George clear on three occasions Cairney went to the near post and was unchallenged to neatly head-flick the ball in.

The goal cancelled Ted Mac-Dougall's eighth minute at-tempt. The Scotsman scooped in a John O'Shea free kick at the far post.

The first half was scrappy but the second got worse. The bumpy surface made control difficult but there was no excuse for erratic passing and thoughtless kicking. At one stage the St. George defence put up what could be described only as three consecutive "bombs" — one by David Skeen went higher than the grandstand.

From a freekick for offside, Michael O'Shea played a care-less backpass which the poaching Cairney was quick to pounce on. He dragged the ball wide, then fired a weak shot which could only be palmed by Fraser and bounced into the net.

At that stage Cairney was a hero. For the first time this season the fans on the terraces cheered him and a huge smile lit up his face. But four minutes later St. George were to drive the final nail into City's relegation coffin.

Lowe has been training three times a week with KB and going to Sydney once a week to train with the NSW based players in the national youth squad. It's a heetic schedule and one which prompted a major decision by Lowe earlier this year.

"I was in the first year of an economics degree at Newcastle University, then everything started happening for me in soccer. Things got abit hard to handle so I deferred my university course in order to concentrate on soccer."

Lowe has few regrets about his decision so far. He played for northern NSW in the youth titles last May and scored against Queensland, the only player to break down the stout Queensland defence before the banana benders went on to win the final.

In one of these, Waldron hit the woodwork with a curling drive and then scored what looked like a perfect goal which was disallowed for a doubtful offside infringement.

In nine minutes the Wolves were two goals up and O'Connor's 15th goal of the season put the home side in a seemingly unassailable position.

But a late goal by Kenny Wilson seemed to upset the Wolves' concentration.

But a drawn result would have been a travesty of justice.

Arok tops, VFL booms, imports succeed in Italy

I will be astounded if St George's Frank Arok doesn't win the coach of the year award fairly handsomely.

Tairry handsomely.

And all this despite Sydney City, under the care of Eddie Thomson, completing a unique PSL title hat-trick.

But there is a huge underlying difference between them. Arok brought the Saints back into the PSL this season and will finish second or third with them.

Thomson 'merely' kept the Slickers in first spot

Actually, it is rather unfair to call Arok a coach. In St George he is also the manager, the promotions man, the planner, the organiser and the fund-raiser.

Australian soccer has never had a character of his stature and veersatility.

One can only speculate how good he would be as a coach — if that's all he would have to do.

that's all he would have to do.

The recent 20,000 crowd at the Swans' match at the cricket ground easily outstripped everything the two rival codes could produce.

We can look at VFL in bewilderment, we can analyse and then ridicule the game as a primitive form of jumping exercise by overgrown fleas — but we cannot deny its pulling power. It seems to appeal, more than any other football code, to the average Aussie; it produces all the action and footballing refinement needed by a large section of the public.

I know Zico or Rossi are absolute artists compared to these shirtless glains; I know soccer is a more sophisticated sport with an infinite range of varieties; I know soccer is played in some 140 countries around the world. I know all that.

But all that doesn't wash with a public here which, in alarmingly large numbers, appear to have a poor taste.

The grotesque aspect of the VFL's succes is that it is likely to hurt Rugby League more than soccer in Sydney. If that's any consolation.

Remember those bitter argiments in many European countries about the value of imported players? 'Course you do. Many people claimed that star imports take away places from local talent, stifle junior development and eventually cause the ruination of national teams.

Well—some may do just that. Spain, which for years has been the luxurious refuge of the continent's and even South America's greedy superstars, did atrociously at the World Cup. So did a colorless Belgium. But then what about Italy?

They re-opened their doors to foreigners only some two or three years ago, wisely limiting their number to two per club. Consequently, all clubs chose and bought extremely carefully, importing such quality players as Brady, Juary, Falcao, Prohaska, Schachiner, Van Der Korput and a few others. And Italy won the World Cup.

Which goes to prove that foreigners can make a thriving soccer set-up even better in one country—and act as depressants in Croatia crushed champion elect Ajax convincingly, prompting Croatia president Joe Sigur to declare: "Without Johnny Gardiner in the side Ajax is about as good as Northcote."

State League top scorer Paul Lewis started the game on the substitutes' bench move which surprised most observers. The elusive Lewis came on at half-time and sparked a little life into an otherwise stagnant Ajax front line but Croatia never was going to let this game out of its grasp.

David Smallman

Dave Brogan scored twice and set up another goal. You and set up another goal. You can't ask more from a striker. Jeff Faulkner, in the first half especially, bubbled with the enthusiasm of old, beating opponents almost at will.

Sean Parton reigned supreme. I've said it before but I've got to say it again. Parton is maturing into a fine stopper. His physical strength in the air and on the ground is outstanding. He matched big Gus Macleod all day in aerial duels and hustled and bustled everyone who got in his way. And looking after Macleod is no mean feat. Just ask the other stoppers in State League.

State League.

"Just say that we were well beaten in this friendly match," said Ajax treasurer Arnold Langer after the game.

Langer probably was referring to the lack of commitment and organisation shown by Ajax, especially at the back where it was puniched for a couple of dreadful blunders. And while some may say what the hell, the title's already in Ajax's grasp, this win to Croatia has added much interest to the end-of-season State League Cup.

Brogan started the rout in the 14th minute but Welsh interest to the end-of-season State League Cup.

Brogan started the rout in the 14th minute and shing his minute and shing his minute and from dead in front shot wide.

Brogan's blow was superb. He set up the move, ran off the ball intelligently and finished off to perfection. Brogan sent Steve Gojevic down the left and took off into the area. Gojevic crossed to the near post and Brogan darted in between two defenders to head down past helpless Lou Denys.

Peter Dickson and Peter Lewis figured in a bad mix-up later in the half. God knows where stand-in sweeper Willie Vassallo was but Ossie Latif was on hand to capitalise on the mistake, run into goal and pas to Brogan at the back post for a simple tap in to make it 20. Brogan was offside in my opinion. Latif had drawn out Denys then definitely played the ball forward to the unmarked Brogan but neither referee Johns nor his linesman saw it that way.

Three minutes into the second half Macleod headed on well for Peter Boyle who blus great chance to peg back a goal. Like Smallman earlier.

Morwell Falcons' vital 4d win over top four rival George Cross was marred in the 72nd minute when Falcons substitute John Bond and George Cross keeper "Rocky" Tachiris clashed violently and were sent off.

Bond and a George Cross defender clashed outside the Cross area and Tachiris came charging out of goal to confront Bond who allegedly head butted the George Cross keeper. It also was alleged that Tachiris swung a punch at Bond so both were sent off. Bond had come on only five minutes earlier to replace injured Richie McClunie and became the first Falcons' player to be sent off this season.

Bond had come on only five minutes earlier to replace injured Richie McClunie and became the first Falcons' player to be sent off this season.

Falcons started the rout in the 14th minute. Noel Mitten, on the right side of the area, cheekily sidestepped his opponent then slotted the ball past Tachiris from about eight metres.

Mitten was brought down right on the edge of the area in the 40th minute. Tony van Baar took the resultant free kick, rolling the ball into the path of midfielder John O'Callaghan who let fly. The ball whisted low to the corner of goal, Tachiris got his hands to it but couldn't hold and Falcons were 2-0 up.

Three minutes later George Cross was well and truly beaten. Harry Bingham floated the ball across from the right. Tachiris and Damine Morgan both went for it but were out jumped by tall McClunie who headed firmly into the empty net.

Dave Rigby's chances of a trip to Singapore at the end of the season by being the leading State League scorer weren't helped by his penalty miss in the 74th minute. The George Cross mid field reset Bill Witteside the 18th off the inside of the post and rolled across the face of goal before running out for a goalkick. Falcons went 4-0 up in the 88th minute. Midfielder Hugh McCann had gone into the George Cross goal after Tachiris was sent off. Tony van Baar beat two opponents down the left, cut inside then shot hard and low toward the near post. McCann got a hand to the ball but couldn't stop it and Falcons had recorded their best home win of the season.

goal. Like Smallman earlier, Boyle shot wide from about eight metres. Tony Curcio played the ball down the right for Brogan in the 56th minute and the Croatia striker's fine chip to the near post set up little Josip Biskic who neatty headed over the advancing Denys.

George Radman, the replacement for injured Ante Bilaver, brought down Paul Lewis inside the area and the leading league scorer took the resultant penalty kick himself, sending Peter Blasby the wrong way.

Blasby then pulled off two fine saves from shots by Smallman and Doyle before across the face of goal allowed Latif to nip in and slam the ball home from about six metres.

A drab second half was livened up near the end when a brawl broke out among the spectators.

Frankston's Bill Buchanan and Juventus midfielder Ged Bannon tangled near the touchline. A supporter ran to the fence and spat at Buchanan who was lying on the ground. That's when all hell broke loose for a few mad minutes with fists, feet, heads and cans flying. Frankston may have lost the match but it probably won the points in the fight.

A bumpy surface and a swirling wind made conditions difficult for both sides at Centenary Park.

Fabio Incantalupo made a superb turn in the 5th minute but shot against the upright. The ball was scrambled out and the subsequent Juventus corner found Paddy Bannon unmarked in the area. Bannon's header was well tipped over by Frankston keeper Frank Petersen.

Croydon was depleted by the absence of injured winger Peter Loughnane but the visitors still had the better of the first half. Stop gap striker Terry Nolan put over two excellent crosses from which Ian Loughnane hit the bar and David Cork weakly headed wide.

Despite losing a two goal lead the one point gained from this draw virtually made Eltham safe from relegation. In a scrappy game with a hard, bumpy ground and an end-to-end wind making things difficult for both sides, a draw was cult for both sides, a draw was a fair result.

Eltham opened the scoring in six minutes when a Mark Lewis free-kick was deflected into the visitors net by a defender. The home side's second goal came five minutes into the second pal fame the winutes into the second half when a cross from Joe Herman was headed home by Sean Kavanaeh.

headed home by Sean Kavanagh.
Yallourn gradually came hack into the game and scored in the 58th minute. Yallourn scored the equaliser 40 seconds from time just as its seemed Eltham would hold on and take both points.

Ipak dobro je kontro-lisao igru i njene aktere, iako nije vadio zuti karton po obica-ju.

Drugo poluvreme je pripalo potpuno PLAVIMA, narocito kada je Mendo Ristovski usao u igru, ali i on je uskoro bio zrtva grube igre. JUST je imao bolje sanse, ali manje sportske korner ispod same precke, Igraei Aleksandra bill su sretini kada je sudija odsvirao. Kraj Sretno sovojeni bod obezbedio im je trece mesto u pbilijas ligi, ali je zato produzio JUST-ovu agoniju, cija je sudbina nelzvesna do kraj iduce nedelje, kada se igra poslednje kolo ovogodisnjeg prvenstva. JUST je cetvrti do pozadi, a jera sa Makedonijom u Prestonu. Neresen rezultat bio bi dovoljan da JUST ostane gde se nalazi, ali bi Makedoniji pokvario moguenost da zauzme cetvrto mesto, ako Wollongong slucajno izgubi susret sa Brisbane City-em.

Kao sto se vidi, JUST-os slucaj je dosta komplikovan, ali sve zavisi od njegovih jerace. Ako zaigraju kao protiv Aledsandra posle odmora ponosno ce napustiti igraliste Makedonije.
Trener JAKSA imace veci problem nego prosle nedelje kada je ostao bez igrace. Sada se vracaju Kiri i Milne, a Hatunic i Belic su zaradili dobre ocene na prosloj utakmici. Koga odbaciti, a koga zadrzati? Nadamo se da nece pogresiti kao protiv Aleksandra, kada je drzao Mendu Ristovskog na klupi do 67. minuta. kog na klupi do 67. minuta Suvise dugo za tako dobrog igr

This was a vital match for Tasmania's Rapid. A loss would have ended their title hopes. A draw seemed bad enough, until the news arrived from the Athletic Centre that leader Juventus had managed from the Athletic Centre that leader Juventus had managed. These two results mean that this week's game between Rapid and Juventus will decide the championship. Juventus, with a much superior goal difference, will only require a draw.

Rapid's physical strength earned them the draw in the end. They were the better side in the first half against an Oympia side filled with erratic talent. The lightweight Olympians. Forster, Nichols, Genaris and Munro, were no match in tackles against the Rapid Titans. Fletcher, Charlton, Crosson and Nunn And yet, the Rapid Boyl, when it came a minute before the break, was unjust. Southworth was guilty of both handball and friside when he scored!

To Olympia's credit, they came out in the second half and took control of the game. Skill began to assert itself and Forster put them level after a neat flick-on by Sherman sherman himself scored from the penalty spot six minutes later to put the Greek side in front.

Rapid now sensed that the little was efforced by the standard that the little was efforced by the same of th

Rapid now sensed that the title was slipping beyond their grasp. Crosson moved into midfield and Nunn took his place at the back. Fullback Willcock was sacrificed for an extra forward, Morgan. Within a minute, the moves began to tell. There was plenty of gutsy determination too. Olympic survived a penalty decision when Edwards, his goalkeeper beaten, dived and caught the ball to save a goal. Referee Masters pointed to the penalty spot, but after consulting his linesmen, gave a free kick for offside.

With five minutes remaining, a Rapid onslaught saw Harrison paim the bail out and the flying Southworth headed strongly into the net.

Rapid have a week to get their act together. The final dress rehearsal will be todd (Wednesday) when they meet Olympia yet again, this time in the Ampol Cup quarter/inals. Peter Brine and Eric Coupting the Juventus suprems, smill be todd to the suprementation of the suprementa

ΧΩΡΙΣ ΔΙΑΙΤΉΤΗ ΕΓΊΝΕ ΤΟ ΝΤΕΡΜΠΥ ΜΕΤΑΞΥ ΔΟΞΑΣ - ΚΛΑΡΙΝΤΑΣ I-I

Η συνάντηση μεταξύ τών όμάδων Δόξας καί Κλαρίντας πού ήταν τόσο κρίσιμη γιά την όμαδα του Κλάθτον άφου κυνηγάει την 2η θέση στήν κατηγορία τού Προβίζιοναλ έγινε άλλά χωρίς επίσημο διαιτητή.

Δυστυχώς άλλά ή Ομοσπονδία γιά μιά ακόμη φορά δείχνει άδικαιολόγητη άδιαφορία σέ έναν άγώνα πού είχε μεγάλη σημασία γιά τήν Κλαρίντα άφού ή Δόξα έχει ήδη κερδίσει τό πρωτάθλημα.

Είναι άπαράδεντο νά μήν έρχεται δ διαιτη τής σέ έναν άγώνα τόσο κρίσιμο πού μιά ό μάδα (Κλάρίντα) παίζει μιά όλόκληρη κατη γορία.

Παράλληλα άσχημο είναι καί γιά τήν Δόξα γιατί όποιαδήποτε φασαρία καί νά γινόταν μέσα στόν άγωνιστικό χώρο σίγουρα....

θά ήταν σέ βάρος της αφού ήταν ή γηπεδού xoc.

Εύτυχώς πού ό κ. Βαγγέλης Γιαννακούλης πού άνέλαβε τό δύσκολο αύτό έργο,πήρε άριστα γιατί στάθηκε καλύτερα καί άπό έπί σημο διαιτητή.

Ακόμη καί όταν ή Κλάρίντα σέ ένα διάστημα άρχισε νά παίζει σκληρά, κατόρθωσε νά πρατήσει τό παιγνίδι.

ΑΠΟ ΤΟ ΣΗΜΕΙΟ ΤΟΥ ΠΕΝΑΛΤΥ Οί παίκτες και των δύο δμάδων ξεκίνησαν κάπως μουδιασμένα άλλά στήν συνέχεια άρχισαν νά μπαίνουν στόν άγώνα καί στό ή Κλαρίντα μετά άπό κόρνερ άνοιξε τό σπόρ γιά νά φτάσει ποντά σέ δεύτερο τέρμα άλλά 6 Νίκος 'Αποστολίδης άπέκρουσε καταπληκτικά γιά νά ακολουθήσει καί νέα φανταστική άπδκρουση άπό τόν ίδιο

> Στήν έπανάληψη ή Δόξα πήρε την υπεροχή και πίεσε άσφυκτικά την έστία της Κλαρί-

Σούτ τού Πετρίδη περνάει μόλις άουτ καί σέ καθαρή άνατροπή του ίδιου παίκτη μέσα στήν μικρή περιοχή παραχωρείται πέναλ τυ πού εύκολα έκανε σέ γκόλ δ Τερζάκης δ δποίος στό Β΄μέρος πήρε τό παιγνίδι έπάνω του στήν μεσαία γραμμή.

Λίγο μετά καί μετά άπό άλεπάλληλα σούτ στήν έστία του Κασίμη ό Μαρκάκης άπό ένα μέτρο πλάσαρε τήν μπάλλα ή όποία -σύμφωνα μέ τούς παίκτες καί τούς φιλάθλους τής Δόξας -πέρασε τήν γραμμή πρίν άποκρουσθεί άπό άμυντικό τής Κλαρίντας. Φυσικά ό διαιτητής ήταν άδύνατον νά τό δεί και ό μόνος πού θά μπορούσε νά έχει γνώμη ήταν ό έπόπτης ό δποίος όμως τήν στιγμή αύτή δέν πρόσεχε.

Μέ υπερέχουσα τήν Δόξα έληξε ή συνάντηση γιά τήν όποία πολλοί είχαν μιλήσει καί προπάντων οι ένδιαφερόμενοι τού Μπουλήν πώς ό άγώνας θά ήταν φτιαχτός. Πήραν όμως όλοι τήν άπάντηση γιατί ή πρωταθλήτρια Δόξα έπαιξε καθαρά καί κυνήγησε τήν νίκη άπό τήν άρχή.

Από τούς παίκτες της πού στό Β΄μέρος έπαιζαν καλή μπάλλα δέν ύστέρησε κανένας καί έπαιξαν οί Ν.Αποστολίδης, Χρ. Παπα χριστοδούλου, Ντ. Αποστολίδης, Δημητρίου, Τ. Αμανατίδης, Τερζάκης, Φακρίδας (46 Μαρκάκης Ν.Μελέτης, Πετρίδης, Χύτας καί Τ. Παπαχριστοδούλου.

Πάντως και οι δύο όμάδες άξίζουν συγχαρη τήρια γιατί ό άγώνας παίχθηκε μέσα σέ άθ λητικά πλαίσια.

EXAME TO OKAH AND TO NOPO TZHAOFK 3-I ΜΟΙΡΑΖΕΤΑΙ ΤΗΝ Ιη ΘΕΣΗ ΜΕ ΤΟ ΚΩΛΦΗΛΝΤ

Παρά τού ότι τό "Ωκλη έπαιξε καλά στόν έκτδς έδρας άγωνα του μέ τό Νόρθ Τζηλόγκ, τελικά έφυγε από τό γήπεδο ήττημένο μέ 3-Ι μιά ήττα πού τό έφερε νά ίσοβαθμεί πλέον μέ το Κωλφηλντ το όποίο κέρδισε εύπολα έπτός έδρας τό Μουρρά-

'Ας σημειωθεί ότι ή δμάδα τού 'Ωκλη είχε ξεφύγει για ένα διάστημα μέ 5 βαθμούς άπό τους άντιπάλους του καί ήταν τό φαβο ρί για την κατάκτηση τού τίτλου.

Δύο άγωνιστικές όμως πρίν τήν λήξη τού πρωταθλήματος βρέθηκε Ισόβαθμο μέ το Κώλ φηλντ καί όπως φαίνεται ό πρωταθλητής θά κριθεί την τελευταία ημέρα τού πρωταθλήματος.

Στόν άγωνα τού Τζηλόγη οί γηπεδούχοι ά νοιξαν τό σκόρ στό Ι5' καί ὁ Τζίτζης στό Ι7' ίσοφάρισε.

Στήν συνέχεια χάθημαν πολλές εύμαιρίες άπό τούς Στεργίου, Παπατσιά καί Τζίτζη, ένώ ένα σούτ τού Χιάκου βρήκε τήν δοκό. στάνοντας στό 70° καί μέσα σέ 3 λεπτά τό σπόρ έγινε 3-Ι ύπέρ τού Νόρθ Τζηλόγκ μετά άπό λάθη της άμυνας τού ΄Ωκλη. Άπό την όμάδα ξεχώρισε ό Κιάκος καί τόν άκολούθησαν οί Πέτρου καί Τζίτζης. Έπαιξαν οί Πέτρου,Νταντάλιας,Λουκάς,
